(Predominantly 1970 - 1978)

11 Scrapbooks

78.5 Linear Feet

The papers of Moon Landrieu were placed in the Loyola University Library's Archives February of 1981 and were opened for research in February 1982.

Moon Landrieu, former mayor of New Orleans, Louisiana was born July 23, 1930, in Orleans Parish, Louisiana, the son of Joseph and Loretta (Bechtel) Landrieu. Moon Landrieu received a BBA from Loyola University in 1952 and his LLB from Loyola University in 1954. He entered the United States ARmy as a lieutenant in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, 1954-57; he worked as a lawyer with the firm Landrieu, Calogero and Kronlage, 1957-1960; as a representative from the 12th Ward of New Orleans, 1960-1966; as a Councilman-at-large from 1966-1970. Moon Landrieu became Mayor of New Orleans, La. from 1970 until April of 1978. During 1975-76 Mr. Landrieu served as president of the United States Conference of Mayors.

The papers of Moon Landrieu deal with the administration of New Orleans, La. and facets of state and national activities. The records were to a large extent arranged alphabetically prior to their arrival at the Library Archives and Research Center, and have been maintained in that state. For the convenience of the researcher, however, the papers of the Landrieu Collection have been subdivided into eight different series according to record type.

1. This guide is in part an adoption from the Archives of Appalachia, Johnson City, Tennessee.
The primary aim of the Loyola University Library's Archives is to collect and preserve manuscripts pertaining to the Loyola community, the Society of Jesus, and the history of Louisiana and the South. In particular, the Archives seeks the papers of those persons and organizations who have had great influence on the history of the City of New Orleans and reflect the activity of Loyola in the community. As such, the papers of Moon Landrieu, a Loyola alumnus and past Mayor of New Orleans, are considered one of the Archive's most valuable holdings.

The purpose of this guide is to indicate the contents of the Moon Landrieu Collection. The papers were received in a subject-caption arrangement and have been maintained in that state. For the convenience of the researcher and general reader the papers have been divided into eight series according to record type.

The first series deals with correspondence and is broken into fourteen sub-series ranging from personal correspondence through transportation. These sub-series are arranged alphabetically by subject caption and then chronologically. The second series is a chronological arrangement of general correspondence. The third series is made up of financial correspondence. The fourth contains legal documents. Series five contains financial records. The sixth series is made up of various public speeches and remarks. The seventh series addresses evaluations, goals, plans, projects, reports, and studies. The eighth series contains bulletins, minutes, newsletters, newsreleases, and proceedings. The arrangement of series three to eight is alphabetical by subject caption, then chronological.
The accessioning, arrangement, inventorying, description, indexing, and publication of this finding-aid would not have been possible without the efforts of many individuals. I would like to acknowledge the assistance and valuable advice of Mark Flynn; the indefatigable energies of Harriet Stern who assisted in the beginnings of this work; the University Library for their interest in the Moon Landrieu Collection and the University Administration.

The papers of Moon Landrieu were placed in the Loyola University Library's Archives February of 1981 and were opened for research in February 1982.

Moon Landrieu, former mayor of New Orleans, Louisiana was born July 23, 1930, in Orleans Parish, Louisiana, the son of Joseph and Loretta (Bechtel) Landrieu. Moon Landrieu received a BBA from Loyola University in 1952 and his LLB from Loyola University in 1954. He entered the United States Army as a lieutenant in the Judge Advocate General's Corps, 1954-57; he worked as a lawyer with the firm Landrieu, Calogero and Kronlage, 1957-1960; as a representative from the 12th Ward of New Orleans, 1960-1966; as a Councilman-at-large from 1966-1970. Moon Landrieu became Mayor of New Orleans, La. from 1970 until April of 1978. During 1975-76 Mr. Landrieu served as president of the United States Conference of Mayors.

The papers of Moon Landrieu deal with the administration of New Orleans, La. and facets of state and national activities. The records were to a large extent arranged alphabetically prior to their arrival at the Library Archives and Research Center, and have been maintained in that state. For the convenience of the researcher, however, the papers of the Landrieu Collection have been subdivided into eight different series according to record type.

1. This guide is in part an adoption from the Archives of Appalachia, Johnson City, Tennessee.
PREFACE

The primary aim of the Loyola University Library's Archives is to collect and preserve manuscripts pertaining to the Loyola community, the Society of Jesus, and the history of Louisiana and the South. In particular, the Archives seeks the papers of those persons and organizations who have had great influence on the history of the City of New Orleans and reflect the activity of Loyola in the community. As such, the papers of Moon Landrieu, a Loyola alumnus and past Mayor of New Orleans, are considered one of the Archive's most valuable holdings.

The purpose of this guide is to indicate the contents of the Moon Landrieu Collection. The papers were received in a subject-caption arrangement and have been maintained in that state. For the convenience of the researcher and general reader, the papers have been divided into eight series according to record type.

The first series deals with correspondence and is broken into fourteen sub-series ranging from personal correspondence through transportation. These sub-series are arranged alphabetically by subject caption and then chronologically. The second series is a chronological arrangement of general correspondence. The third series is made up of financial correspondence. The fourth contains legal documents. Series five contains financial records. The sixth series is made up of various public speeches and remarks. The seventh series addresses evaluations, goals, plans, projects, reports, and studies. The eighth series contains bulletins, minutes, newsletters, newsreleases, and proceedings. The arrangement of series three to eight is alphabetical by subject caption, then chronological.
The accessioning, arrangement, inventorying, description, indexing, and publication of this finding-aid would not have been possible without the efforts of many individuals. I would like to acknowledge the assistance and valuable advice of Mark Flynn; the indefatigable energies of Harriet Stern who assisted in the beginnings of this work; the University Library for their interest in the Moon Landrieu Collection and the University Administration.

COLLECTION NO. 1

July 1988
THE MOON LANDRIEU COLLECTION (ADDENDUM)

Arrangement and description of the Landrieu Collection was completed in 1982. Since then, new material has been received. Boxes 158 through 162 contain tape recordings, mainly of Mayor Landrieu's press conferences. Each tape has been assigned a number and placed in chronological order. Box 163 contains twenty-four videotapes and one film. The film is of Landrieu's first mayoral inauguration.
