

You can do a search on any EBSCOhost database, save it, and have new results emailed directly to you!

- First, create an account with EBSCOhost.
- Go to the library's web site and click on the Search + Find tab. Then select Databases by Subject.
- Under Frequently Used, click on Academic Search Complete or any EBSCOhost database.
- Look for this logo in the upper left corner.
- In the upper right, click on Sign In, then I'm a new user.
- Fill out the form to create an account for yourself. Remember your user name and password!
- Select the database you want. If you haven't signed in yet, in the upper right, click on Sign In. Notice that the EBSCOhost logo has changed to My EBSCOhost.
- Click the Advanced Search tab and do your search.
