Administrative/Biographical History

Founded in 1989, the New Orleans Film Society's mission is "to engage, educate, and inspire through the art of film" and their main focus is the New Orleans Film Festival which is held annually in the fall; however, New Orleans Film Society also hosts the French Film Festival, as well as other specialty festivals and screenings year-round. The New Orleans Film Festival is Oscar®-qualifying and, from 2012-2015, was named one of the "25 Film Festivals Worth the Entry Fee" by MovieMaker Magazine.

Scope and Content

This collection of New Orleans Film Festival programs and articles provides insight into the film history of both New Orleans and Louisiana as a whole. Featuring programs from 1996 through 2015, the collection offers a look into the film industry's presence in Louisiana in recent years through programs and pocket guides for the New Orleans Film Festival, schedules for specialty film festivals and Spring/Fall outdoor screenings, and "The Louisiana Entertainment Sourcebook: 2014-2015". The collection also includes one folder of articles about the New Orleans Film Society and New Orleans Film Festival.
